Overview

Halesi Mahadev tour takes you to the pious spot at Halesi Mahadev cave in remote Khotang district. It holds the belief that Lord Shiva hides inside the cave to save from demon Bhasmasur. This cave faces towards the East and between Dudhkoshi in the right and Sunkoshi to the left.

Halesi Mahadev cave is 67 feet below the land surface. There are small caves inside the Halesi Mahadev Cave. You can see the two feet tall shrine of Lord Shiva inside the cave. Outside the cave you can see multi colored prayer flags. This place holds religious significance to the Hindus, Buddhist and Kirats. It is also called the Matrika cave. Guru Padmasambhava, Rimpoche had meditated on this cave and achieved immortality.

Above the Halesi Mahadev cave you can find the Kailash forest. This place sees crowds of devotees on the days of Bala Chaturdashi, Shiva Ratri, Ramnavami.The surroundings are glorified by views of Mountain peaks like Dorje

Lakpa, Neukbar. There is also a Vasaha cave and you can see the five gates outside the Halesi Mahadev cave. Each gate is about the outcome of a person's life which can either take him to one of these such as Swargdwar, Dharmadwar, Papdwar, Janmadwar and Karmadwar. Best times to visit Halesi Mahadev tour are March, April, May and September, October, November and December.
