Overview

Ghorepani trek is a popular tea house trek in the Annapurna region. It is a convenient trek for the beginners to traverse down to rhododendron flowers bloom and local Gurung and Magar settlements along the way.

Ghorepani and Ghandruk are two different places and between them comes the Pooch hill which is a shout out on the spectacular sunrise and sunset views on the snowy mountain peaks of Dhaulagiri, Annapurna, Manaslu, Machhapuchhre, Nilgiri, Dhampus.

You also pass by the huts and the riverbanks on this Ghorepani trek. Dhampus and Phedi offer a clear view of Annapurna range. This Ghorepani trek is a scenic experience walking down to ornate villages in Ghandruk and getting familiar to Gurung culture and lifestyle, visiting a museum and also passing by the Monastery.

In some areas travelers need to walk past forest areas and reach a flat spot till they reach Phedi and drive to Pokhara. Best seasons are Spring (March, April, May) and Autumn (September, October, November, December). This trek is easy and a family trek in Nepal.
